

Terms of Use

[Version/Date last modified]

Privacy

[Organization] operates [Online registration page URL], which provides online class registration service. This page informs you of our policies with the collection, use, and disclosure of Personal Information if users decided to use our Service.

If you choose to use our Service, then you agree to the collection and use of information in relation with this policy. The Personal Information that we collect are used for providing and improving the Service. We will not use or share your information with anyone except as described in this Privacy Policy. Your account and password are personal to you and may not be used by anyone else to access the online registration site.

Registration

You must need to create an online account to be able to register for classes. We are sorry but we cannot accommodate non-registered guests. Space is limited.

Registration Confirmation

You will get an email notification after confirming your class registration. If you do not get an email confirmation, please check your spam folder.

E-mail Notices

We may use your email address to send you Service-related notices (including any notices required by law, in lieu of communication by postal mail). We may also use your contact information to send you marketing messages. If you don't want to receive these messages, you can opt out by following the instructions in the message. If you correspond with us by email, we may retain the content of your email messages, your email address and our responses.

Cancellation and Refund

You will receive a full refund for any paid class that you cancel or reschedule at least two business days in advance. There are no refunds if you cancel or reschedule within two business days of the class. In the unlikely event that Legacy has to cancel or reschedule a paid event, you will either be fully refunded or able to reschedule.

If you can't come for any reason, please cancel or reschedule by logging into our online registration system.
